to derogatory information was disclosed during KRISTOL's background investigation.

KRISTOL was generally described by all interviewees as an intellectual, conservative and loyal to the United States.

Further, he was characterized as a social scientist, knowledgeable in the field of domestic affairs, particularly the US political process.

An article by NORMAN PODHORETZ, published in the WASHINGTON POST (pg A10) on 6/30/88, refers to the fact that the author's friend, IRVING KRISTOL, recently moved to Washington D.C. taking the magazine he edits, the PUBLIC INTEREST, along with him. The article deals generally with a comparison of Washington D.C. and New York City as competing intellectual centers. No other information regarding KRISTOL is set forth therein.

It would appear likely, therefore, that IRVING WILLIAM KRISTOL, a HENRY LUCE Professor of Urban Values at NYU, is the same individual [redacted].

b1

~~X~~ ~~MOLIN~~ This conclusion is reinforced by the fact that a JOHN [redacted] is also a professor with NYU.

In view of the fact that the subject of this matter now appears to reside in the Washington D.C. area NYO has assumed the role of AO in this matter.

The above information should be handled in accordance with the instructions set forth in the FCI Manual, Section 105-3.3.3.. Recognizing the fact that the subject's profession and academic affiliation necessitate FBIHQ clearance prior to interview, NYO is most desirous of determining the nature of [redacted] interest in the subject.

As the acquisition of [redacted] has generated numerous ancillary investigations, NYO requests that, in an effort to coordinate these matters, WMFO advise NYO in advance of any interview of the subject.

KRISTOL was generally described by all interviewees as an intellectual, conservative and loyal to the United States.

Further, he was characterized as a social scientist, knowledgeable in the field of domestic affairs, particularly the US political process.

According to an article by ~~NORMAN PODHORETZ~~, published in the Washington Post (pg A19) on 6/30/88 and one by IRVING KRISTOL, published in the NEW REPUBLIC, 198:24-5, April 11, 1988, KRISTOL recently moved from New York to Washington, D.C. taking the magazine he edits, THE PUBLIC INTEREST along with him. KRISTOL, listed as the co-editor of THE PUBLIC INTEREST and a senior fellow at the American Enterprise Institute, states in the article that he moved to WDC because there is a "public policy community of thinkers and writers, that is engaging and even influential."

THE PUBLIC INTEREST is published quarterly by ~~National Affairs, Inc.~~ and is co-edited by KRISTOL and ~~NATHAN GLAZER~~. It's winter, 1988 edition announced the move to WDC and the location of it's editorial office as 1112 16th St., N.W., Suite 545, WDC 20036. The library periodical guide lists it as the "soul of conservatism".

The District of Columbia telephone directory confirms the above address for THE PUBLIC INTEREST and lists telephone number 785-8555. There is a listing for IRVING KRISTOL, 2510 Virginia Ave., N.W., WDC, telephone 338-7207 which is in the Watergate East apartment complex. A review of the Credit Bureau, Inc., WDC indicates that KRISTOL has lived at the above address since 3/17/88.

Leadsources, business reference for WDC, lists ~~American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy Research~~, (AEI), 1150 17th St., N.W., WDC, telephone 862-5800 as a publicly supported, non-partisan research and educational institution which seeks to insure sufficient competition of ideas in the public policy formation process by providing objective analysis of national and international issues. Studies are commissioned in the areas of economics, foreign affairs, politics and social policy. AEI publishes PUBLIC OPINION MAGAZINE, REGULATION MAGAZINE, and AEI ECONOMIST.
